

Mohawks Ice Racing Club

Code of Conduct

The MIRC Code of Conduct is for all persons involved throughout the club, including: - Committee members, coaches, skaters, parents/guardians and spectators.

- Show good sporting behavior when taking part and spectating at race events, during training sessions and at all times when involved in and representing the club.
- Never to use inappropriate language at any time when representing the club or taking part in activities organized by the club.
- Model good behavior at all time.
- Show encouragement and support for fellow club skaters
- Work as part of the Mohawks team and respect the decisions of the coach
- Show emotional respect for others – being thoughtful about the feelings of others
- Respect equipment, belongings and facilities used
- Endeavour to do their best at both training sessions and race events
- Respect all coaches and to listen, follow instructions and advice given by them
- Challenge others with respect
- Think before posting any information online in the public domain, such as websites or social media
- Ensure that any profiles on Social Media and any content that you post are consistent with the image you represent in respect of your association with MIRC.

MIRC does not expect those involved with the club to -

- Bully others, including referring to them by names they do not wish to be known by.
- upload content onto websites or Social Media sites that could be deemed disruptive, threatening, abusive, harassing, libelous or an invasion of another's privacy; this includes text, audio, photography and video
- Use MIRC's name in a derogatory manner
- Upload any content deemed confidential to MIRC
- Use the MIRC logo without prior consent
- Use inappropriate hashtags on Twitter, Facebook, Instagram or other media platforms
- Post personal messages through MIRC pages on any social media platform

Reviewed at AGM June 2023